2010 Women's Finance Exchange

The Women's Finance Exchange, Inc. is a group of dynamic women who are established in our professions. Most of our members are service providers in the financial disciplines, such as banking, accounting, money management, investment banking, private equity, venture capital, corporate securities, law, commercial finance and investor relations counseling. The goals of WFE are to:

- Create and develop a network of professional women with careers in the financial service industry or careers supporting financial services
- Generate referral partnerships by networking with others in the organization
- Provide programs and learning opportunities that foster professional development and encourage social interaction among members
- Give to our community by promoting and enhancing the welfare of all women
